

GRANTWOOD VILLAGE FACTS:

- ✧ The Town of Grantwood Village, which is now referred to as Old Grantwood, was incorporated in September 1937.
- ✧ In 1962, the Forest Haven Area agreed to annexation, followed by Grant's Farm in 1966.
- ✧ The Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site, also known as White Haven, joined the Village in the mid-1990's.
- ✧ There are 347 homes in the Village. The population in 2010 was 863.
- ✧ The Village contracts with the St. Louis County Police Department to provide police protection. Our full-time officer is Dave Graf, and the Affton 3rd Precinct furnishes additional services, including 24-hour patrols.
- ✧ Grantwood Village is served by the Affton Fire Department.
- ✧ Grantwood Village maintains all public islands, park areas, and streets within the Village.
- ✧ Grant's Trail, an eight-mile long walking and bicycling path, passes through the Village.
- ✧ All homes are zoned Single Family.

Ordinances

Grantwood Village Code is available on the Village website: www.grantwoodvillage.us.

Permits

All construction or remodeling projects require permits from Grantwood Village and/or Saint Louis County. Please contact the Building Commissioner before starting your project.

The Village also requires permits for garage, yard and estates sales. Please contact the trustees 30 days in advance to obtain a permit. The fee is $25.00 per day.

Every vehicle whether owned or leased must have a windshield decal. The $5.00 cost is included on the resident's annual Personal Property tax bill.

Village Hall

Located at #1 Missionary Ridge, the Village Hall is not staffed at all times. To reach a Trustee or Police Officer, leave a message on the Village answering machine at 314-842-4409.

The lower meeting room is available for residents to use for a nominal fee and a damage fee deposit. Contact the Building Commissioner for information and to reserve the room.
